

John Fuhrer is the Director of Operations and Facilities for Woodland School District 50, with over 30 years in the facilities arena including 17 in public education. John has been an active member of Illinois Association of School Business Officials (IASBO). He has worked with IASBO in developing training programs and standards with the North Eastern Illinois Facility Professional's (NEIFP). These Standards include partnering with the Association of Facility Engineers (AFE) to bring their programs to IASBO to allow education and testing for all current and next generation facility leaders. John's education includes an MBA from Cardinal Stritch University, BA from Concordia University, AA Electromechanical Technology from Gateway Technical College, Northern Illinois University for the School Business Official (CSBO) and holds certifications in Certified Plant Maintenance Manager (CPMM) as well as instructor for CPMM & Certified Plant Supervisor (CPS) through the Association for Facilities Engineers (AFE).